

The North Queensland Flyfishers Club is proud to nominate David Little for the prestigious Hamar Midgely Award in recognition of his outstanding contributions to our club and the sport of fly fishing.

David's unwavering commitment to fly fishing has made him an invaluable community member. His dedication is exemplified through the following:

1. Expertise in Fly Tying:

David possesses a wealth of knowledge and a remarkable level of expertise in the art of fly tying. His willingness to share this knowledge has enriched the skills of countless club members and enthusiasts.

2. Leadership in Fly Casting Instruction:

David is an integral part of our fly-casting instruction team, where he imparts his wisdom and experience to aspiring anglers. His patient and effective teaching style has helped many members improve their casting techniques.

3. Exceptional Club Leadership:

David's commitment to our club goes beyond his involvement in its leadership. He has served on the club's executive for numerous years, including a tenure as President. His leadership has been instrumental in shaping the direction and success of the North Queensland Flyfishers Club.

4. Mentorship and Fishing Etiquette:

David's generosity with his time extends to mentoring new members. He leads by example, demonstrating impeccable fishing etiquette and sound judgment on the water. His influence has played a significant role in fostering a welcoming and respectful atmosphere within our club.

5. Encouragement of Participation:

David actively encourages new members to engage in fly fishing by organising the club calendar and coordinating various club trips. His efforts allow members to explore their passion for fly fishing while strengthening the club's sense of community.

6. Inclusivity and Community Involvement:

David has consistently advocated for outreach initiatives, including organising annual club field days and the involvement of veterans. His commitment to inclusivity has made our club more diverse and welcoming.

David Little's dedication, leadership, and passion for fly fishing make him an exceptional candidate for the Hamar Midgely Award. His contributions have left an indelible mark on our club, enriching the lives of fellow members and perpetuating the spirit of fly fishing in North Queensland.

We wholeheartedly endorse David Little's nomination for this prestigious honour.
